Greetings to the Graduates

As we go through life, our progress is marked by special moments when we turn corners, and new horizons open out before us. This convocation of scholars celebrates the happy observance of such an important turning point in your lives. The ceremony is steeped in customs that have been passed down to us over the centuries. It is sedate, colorful, traditional, and meaningful. We hope you will enjoy the experience, and will participate in the goodwill that permeates a day to be remembered.

By conferring its degrees, the University confirms that you have successfully fulfilled a rigorous course of study and have earned the right to enter into the collegiality of educated women and men. Be proud of what you have done, and be grateful for what the University has done for you.

Universities began as small collections of scholars who worked together to preserve and advance knowledge. Students came to study with them and, in due course, an administrative structure arose to provide system and recognition for those studies. This ancient structure is preserved at the University of Alberta, with the faculty and the students providing the core of the University's purpose: teaching and the advancement of knowledge. The faculty's task is facilitated by their colleagues in the academic staff, the Faculty Service Officers, the Administrative Professional Officers and the Librarians, and the University's dedicated support staff.

The faculty, numbering some 1,600, is responsible for creating programs of study, for teaching, and for evaluating the learning of the student body, both undergraduate and Understand that the University of Alberta is not just the campus which you know so well. It is everything that our graduates of yesterday, today, and tomorrow accomplish to make our world a better place to live in. Today you join a worldwide community of alumni, a hundred thousand strong, whose support and interest is vital to the enhancement of the quality and the value of the degrees which you receive today. Keep in touch, and never forget the University that nurtured the mind you use every day. You entered to grow in wisdom. You leave the better to serve your community and yourselves.

Welcome and Congratulations.

graduate. In addition, faculty members are responsible for the scholarly reputation of the University by preserving and sharing knowledge and by pursuing new ideas and knowledge through their research.

The faculty and staff congratulate you, the graduates, on the successful completion of your present studies which is recognized by the degrees to which you are admitted today. Your achievement deserves praise. We hope your present knowledge provides a sound base for an education which will continue throughout a rewarding life. We would remind you of the advice given to graduands by Honorary Degree Recipient Dr Tommy Banks: "Try to be a good person. You will be amazed how rewarding it is."

Congratulations from the Faculty and Staff!

University Mace and Ceremonial Chairs

The University of Alberta Mace was designed and crafted specifically for the University as a gift from Dr Francis Phillip Galbraith, Chancellor of the University of Alberta from 1964 - 1970. It was presented by his son, Michael Galbraith, on behalf of his father on May 26, 1970.

Among its elements are: the Star of Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Patron Saint of Scholars; the Wild Rose of Alberta; the Maple Leaf; and the separate charges which make up the University's Coat of Arms. The University motto "Quaecumque Vera" ("Whatsoever Things Are True" Phil 4:8) encircles the staff. The Mace is made of sterling silver which was rhodium plated after the insertion of the various enamelled shields which make up its elements. A special electro-plate process was used to apply 24 carat gold to other parts of the Mace.

It was intended that the Mace should be modern in appearance but with medieval origins. The preponderance of visual weight at the top of the staff and the rather complex section through the metalwork at this point are reminiscent of the use of the mace as a weapon, defensive or aggressive. The Mace is carried before the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, in procession and rests on its stand in full view of the assembly during Convocation. Centuries ago the Mace was a symbol of authority over life and death. Today it represents power – but the power of knowledge and the importance of the University in the community.

The Chancellor's Chair was presented to the University of Alberta as a gift from the 1922 graduating class. It is made of solid oak with a padded leather back and seat. Above the padded leather back is carved the University motto "Quaecumque Vera" together with the class year, 1922, and the University coat-of-arms.

In 1987, the family and friends of Dr Charles Malcolm Macleod, Chair of the Board of Governors from 1950 to 1966, presented a memorial gift to the University of an oak stand for the University of Alberta Mace and two additional chairs for use by the President and the Chair of the Board of Governors at Convocation.

Convocation

In the eleventh century, a new vitality quickened all aspects of the civilization of Western Europe. The creative forces thus unleashed soon found expression in new institutions, and of these the university bids fair to be the most enduring. The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial, are medieval in origin.

The medieval university was originally called a studium generale, that is, a place of learning to which teachers and students from anywhere resorted. The first studia were at Salerno, Bologna, and Paris. These came into existence spontaneously and developed through the twelfth century as the needs of the time and their inner necessities dictated. In the thirteenth century these spontaneous associations crystallized into guilds or corporations endowed by Church and State with specific privileges which guaranteed the internal autonomy necessary for the vocation of study. To these corporations was increasingly applied the word universitas denoting the entire group of those responsible for the transmission of higher learning and the pursuit of knowledge.

By the beginning of the fourteenth century, two forms of university organization had appeared. At Bologna, which was primarily a higher school of canon and civil law to which came men experienced in ecclesiastical and secular administration, the control of the studium generale passed to the students; hence Bologna was a universitas scholarum. On the other hand in Paris and Oxford, whose dominant faculty was the Faculty of Arts, the studium emerged under the direction of a guild of teachers, a universitas magistrorum. Through its own officials, notably the chancellor (once symbol of external control and by now of internal autonomy), the guild of teachers developed its courses of instruction, administered its own affairs and admitted to its company only those who had met its intellectual standards. The University of Alberta stands in the tradition of Paris and Oxford.

Originally the goal of the medieval student was certification by the guild of teachers that he also was qualified to teach (the licentia docendi). With the passage of time the student's progress through the curriculum was marked by ceremonies which signified his successful attainment of a certain level (gradus or in modern language, degree) of competence. The Bachelor had completed his apprenticeship in the Faculty of Arts. The Master was now qualified to teach in that Faculty and was thus incorporated into the universitas magistrorum. The Doctor was one who, having obtained the mastership, had successfully completed the curriculum of one of the "higher" faculties (in the Middle Ages, law, medicine, and theology) and was now qualified to teach in those faculties. Inevitably the degrees of the universitas did more than admit their holders to the teaching profession. They served the wider social purpose of demonstrating their holders' fitness to serve the entire medieval community.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or convocation, is the modern equivalent of the medieval magna congregatio of all faculties, is led by the Chancellor and the Chief Marshal carrying the mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods, and caps, once the sober, disciplined dress of secular clergy and teachers, declare in their various designs and colors the academic qualifications of the Faculty. The citations and presentations by the Faculty to the Chancellor attest to him and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University. There follows a visible and public act whereby the universitas magistrorum, acting through its Chancellor, confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. More, the formula, "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within the hands of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students in the appropriate degree to the universitas magistrorum. The students thereafter bear for all time the mark of their association with this University. They have received what the University has been and presently is. Since they bear in themselves the promise of the future, they are what the University hopes to be. For all its solemnity, convocation is a joyous occasion.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. It is still a controversial question as to whether academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical or in civilian dress. Gowns may have been counted necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars. Hoods seem to have served to cover the tonsured head until superseded for that purpose by the skull cap. This was itself displaced by a headdress more or less like one or another of those now recognized as "academic." [The mortar board, the hard, square cap commonly used as academic headdress today, evolved from the softer, more flexible "square cap" that was introduced in England in about 1490 and is named for the square board on a handle used by stone masons for holding the mixed mortar to be applied to walls.] Both Cambridge and Oxford have made academic dress a matter of university control to the extent of even its minor details and have repeatedly issued revised regulations. In Laudian days in Oxford it was prescribed that any tailor who departed from authorized design "even by a nail's breadth" in the making of any article of collegiate costume was to be punished by the vice-chancellor of the university.

Academic dress at the University of Alberta generally follows the prescription of Cambridge University in the design of the gown, and that of Oxford University in the design of the hood. The following page provides a detailed description of the academic dress at this institution.

In addition to the apparel worn by holders of degrees conferred by the University of Alberta, a collection of apparel specific to particular offices has also been developed. The President of the University wears a green gown faced with gold braid trim and lining and a green cap with a gold tassel. The Chancellor and Chancellors Emeriti wear gowns of teal blue with silver trim and black caps with silver tassels. The gowns of the senior officials bear an embroidered crest of the University. University Governors and Senators wear stoles bearing the crest of the University over their gowns: gold for Governors and green for Senators. The University Registrar wears a green gown with gold trim on the sleeves.

Graduates and staff of the University of Alberta who wish to purchase their own academic apparel are invited to contact: Harcourt's Limited, 26-28 Duncan Street, Toronto, ON, M5V 2B9. Order forms may be obtained by contacting the Convocation Officer in the Office of the Registrar.

Doctorate Degrees

Doctors' gowns (PhD, DMus, and EdD) conform to the Intercollegiate Code in design. They are made of black material and the velvet trim on the sleeves is Philosophy Blue for the PhD and DMus, and Education Light Blue for the EdD. Doctor's hoods conform to the Intercollegiate Code in shape, size, and color. They are made of black material to match the gown, and have a full lining of gold satin with a six-inch green satin chevron. The velvet trim distinguishes the two degrees and matches the velvet trim on the gown's sleeves. There is a narrow green piping where the gold lining joins the black material. Mortarboards are the standard black trencher shape with black tassels, which are worn forward and to the left.

Honorary Doctorates

Honorary Doctors of Laws, Letters, and Science wear a scarlet robe faced with white silk. Hoods are made in the Cambridge form of scarlet silk with a full lining of white silk. Caps are black velvet with a gold tassel.

Honorary Degree Recipients

Dr Ted Tetsuo Aoki, professor emeritus of secondary education, has influenced curriculum studies and teacher development both in Alberta and internationally. His contribution to curriculum theory has been recognized by a number of organizations and in 1985, the Bergamo Conference on Curriculum Theory and Classroom Practice established an annual award in his name. Dr Aoki's other special research areas include the relationship between graduate and undergraduate programs in teacher education and orientation towards theory and practice in teacher education.

An alumnus of the University (BEd and MEd), Dr Aoki obtained his Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Oregon. He joined the Faculty of Education in 1964 and chaired the Department of Secondary Education from 1978 to 1985. Dr Aoki left the University briefly from 1975-78 to head the Centre for the Study of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of British Columbia.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Dr Ted Aoki.

Ludwig Wittgenstein's On Certainty/Über Gewissheit, San Francisco, Arion Press, 1991, is a handsome new edition of the last writings of one of our century's few enduring philosophers. Wittgenstein's celebration of ordinary life and common speech as touchstones of philosophical certainty is especially apparent in this work which has a lightness and playfulness rare in philosophy. His linguistic imagination is demonstrated through little scenarios in which someone responds to the effect of inserting a proposition we are trying to understand into the stream of life as we live it. With twelve prints by Mel Bochner this volume is No. 111 of 300 copies.

Dr Naomi Hersom

was President and Vice-Chancellor of Mount Saint Vincent University from 1986 to 1991. Before assuming the Presidency, she was Dean of the College of Education at the University of Saskatchewan and held several administrative posts at the University of British Columbia. Dr Hersom was also a member of the University's Department of Elementary Education from 1969-75.

A graduate of this University (PhD), Dr Hersom received her undergraduate and master's degrees from the University of Manitoba. Her special areas of research include curriculum theory, research, evaluation; teacher education; the role of teachers in curriculum development; and women in education.

Dr Hersom is currently a visiting scholar at the University of Ottawa.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Dr Naomi Hersom.

Katherine Mansfield's Prelude, Richmond, Hogarth Press, 1918, is the first edition of Mansfield's haunting tale of childhood in New Zealand which has become a classic. This very scarce volume was the third book issued by Leonard and Virginia Woolf at their hand-press in a London suburb. Both writers and critics of note, their press became highly admired for publishing books that voiced the foremost literary, social, and political ideas of the day. This volume is a key addition to the library's extensive Hogarth Press holdings.

Madam Justice Ellen Picard, Vice-Chair of the Law Reform Commission of Canada, taught in the University's Faculty of Law for 15 years and during this time wrote a number of papers and a major work entitled "Legal Liability of Doctors and Hospitals in Canada". Long involved in health law, she established the Health Law Institute at the University and is an honorary professor in the Faculty of Medicine. She was also a member of the bioethics committees of three Edmonton hospitals.

Madam Justice Picard left the Faculty of Law in 1986 to take up a position on the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta. In 1991 she was appointed Vice-Chair of the Law Reform Commission of Canada.

An alumna of the University, Madam Justice Picard has been actively involved in several law associations including the Alberta Institute of Law Research and Reform, Canadian Association of Law Teachers (section on law and medicine) Association Liaison Committee.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Madam Justice Ellen Picard.

Ignacio de Paredes' Promptuario Manual Mexicano, Mexico, Bibliotheca Mexicana, 1759, is a rare and interesting volume, one of only a handful of works printed in Nahuatl, the most widely used aboriginal language of colonial Mexico. The preliminaries and chapter headings are given in Spanish and Latin, the rest is entirely in Nahuatl. Compiled by Father Paredes, a Jesuit missionary, the book contains religious dialogues with examples and moral exhortations, as well as sermons. This volume is an important addition to our Javitch Collection of works in native languages.

Mr Justice William Stevenson, a Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, has played a major role at the national level in conducting courses for judges on the writing of judgments and recently in the establishment of the National Centre for Judicial Education and the National Legal Education Committee. He has also been a leader in the creation and the successful activities of the Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice.

During his many years in Alberta, Mr Justice Stevenson was actively involved with the Alberta Law Reform Institute and served as its Chair. As well, he developed a full program of seminars and courses to give continuing legal education to lawyers.

An Edmonton native and an alumnus of the University, Mr Justice Stevenson was a professor in the Faculty in Law for 12 years. He also had a private law practice before being appointed a Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta in 1979 and a year later was named a Justice of the Court of Appeal of Alberta and Court of Appeal for Northwest Territories. Mr Justice Stevenson was appointed a Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada in 1990.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding the honorary degree to The Honourable Mr Justice William Stevenson.

Robert Montgomery Bird's Nick of the Woods; or, The Jibbenainosay. A Tale of Kentucky, Philadelphia, Lea and Blanchard, 1837 in two volumes, is the rare first edition in the original cloth bindings.

One of the best yet overlooked of early American novels, and notable for its narrative directness and skillfully handled complex plot, it is the story of an Indian-hater and frontier avenger who is also a Quaker. It provides a dark alternative to the idealized noble savages of James Fenimore Cooper.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Dr Hélène Cixous, French author and scholar, is credited with having initiated Women's Studies in France. After the political upheavals in France of May 1968, she was asked by the Minister of National Education to be responsible for establishing the new University of Paris VIII. Dr Cixous founded that University's Centre for Women's Studies in 1974 and has since been its head. It is the only one of its kind in France and offers advanced work up to the PhD level.

In addition to being an academic, Dr Cixous is a widely-read author of novels, short stories, essay, and plays. Her books have been translated into many languages (English, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Danish, Swedish, Flemish, Japanese, to name only a few) and she and her work have been honored at international conferences in the Netherlands and England. Dr Cixous has contributed enormously over the past 15 years to international discussions in feminist theory and criticism. She is currently a professor of English at the University of Paris VIII.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Professor Hélène Cixous.

Patrick E White's Eurydice Unbound, Relief prints by John Talleur, Lawrence, Kansas, Holiseventh Press, 1988, is one of the most stunning artists' books of the decade. Eurydice offers a new interpretation of the familiar myth of Orpheus and Eurydice. In this witty version (the authors state) "we exchange a hero for our heroine, Eurydice – superstar, as the book becomes a trophy to her triumph and to that of her contemporary sisters." Hand-printed on special papers with an exuberant sense of color, this volume is No. 16 of 25 copies.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada! Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

Mr Oleksandr Honchar, is a deputy of the Supreme Soviet of the Ukrainian SSR and of the Supreme Soviet of the USSR. In March 1989, he was elected to the newly formed Congress of the People's Deputies. Mr Honchar was a journalist for Komsomol newspapers in Kharkiv Oblast and was head of the Writers' Union of Ukraine from 1959-71. Since 1973, he has headed the Ukrainian Peace Committee and he has been a member of the Academy of Sciences of the Ukrainian SSR for 14 years.

Mr Honchar is best known for his novel Sober (The Cathedral), first published in 1968. A discussion of the ways in which values are threatened and distorted by the Soviet bureaucracy, the book was censored and removed from circulation. Mr Honchar has remained an outspoken representative of change in the Soviet Union and from early 1986, has been a leading voice for the implementation of glasnost in the Soviet Ukraine.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Mr Oles' Honchar.

[The Holy Gospels] Kiev, 1697 is a monumental edition of the four gospels printed in Church Slavonic before Peter the Great's edict which required Ukrainian printing to conform to Russian regulations. Printed in red and black, with the name of an ancient Ukrainian monastery on the endpaper, it is a major addition to the University's extensive Slavic collections.

Mr Sandy Pearson, Board Chair of Century Sales and Service Ltd, is a native Edmontonian who has been extensively involved in community work. His community service includes the leadership he has given to the Bishop's Men, a group providing money to the Anglican clergy in Alberta and the Northwest Territories. As well, Mr Pearson has been an active Chair of the Advisory Board for the Salvation Army in Edmonton, and held directorships in Ducks Unlimited and the Royal Winnipeg Ballet.

Mr Pearson is no stranger to the University. He has just completed a six year term as a member of the Board of Governors and he chaired the Business Advisory Council of the Faculty's Competitive Edge Campaign which raised $18 million (including matching funds) in endowment funds for the support of the business school programs.

Mr Pearson's leadership in the Canadian business community is extensive as well, as a director of NOVA, Mutual Life of Canada, Prudential Steel Ltd and TransAlta Utilities Corporation.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Mr HJ Sandy Pearson.

Pierre Bontier and Jean LeVerrier's Histoire de la Premiere Decouverte et Conquete des Canaires. Faite dès l'an 1402.... Paris, Michel Soly, 1630, is the first edition of an account of the conquest and colonization of the Canary Islands in 1402. Also included is Pierre Bergeron's Traicté de la Navigation (1629), the first French book devoted to European overseas exploration, with several chapters on the French explorations of Canada and the search for the northwest passage. This volume is a valuable primary source for scholars.

Honorary Degree Recipients

Ronald Jordan has been Dean of Dentistry at the University of Manitoba since 1989. Before joining the University of Manitoba he was Associate Dean of Dentistry at the University of Western Ontario (UWO). For 18 of the 23 years he was at UWO, Dr Jordan was professor and Chair of the Department of Restorative Dentistry.

A graduate of the University of Alberta, Dr Jordan is a leading clinician in the field of restorative dentistry and his textbooks on this subject are considered to be authorities in the field. His research has advanced the field of restorative dentistry to its current state of cosmetic attraction and has had an impact upon the practice of dentistry. Dr Jordan has been honored with Fellowships by the Royal College of Dentists of Canada, the Academy of Dentistry International and the Academy of General Dentistry.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Dr Ronald Jordan.

Ian Rogerson's Agnes Miller Parker: Wood-engraver and Book-illustrator, 1895 - 1980, Wakefield, The Fleece Press, 1990, shows why Parker's name is synonymous with the twentieth century wood-engraved book for many readers. She created illustrations for such English classics as Tess of the D'Urbervilles working with commercial and private presses, leaving behind a legacy of painstaking perfection. This splendid reference book displays her accomplishment fully and is a welcome addition to the library's book arts collection. It is one of 50 special copies containing six extra prints, and printed by hand on mould made paper.

Before assuming the responsibilities as Chief of the Oral Health Unit of the World Health Organization (WHO) in Geneva, Dr David Barmes was the sub-unit head of the Oral Health Unit as well as an epidemiologist within the Unit. In these roles he was responsible for the production of a series of WHO epidemiological and other manuals now in use worldwide; for the establishment of a global data bank; and for the general development of the oral health program with its current strategy of regular situation analyses and coordinated goal oriented planning.

Dr Barmes' association with the University of Alberta is with the Faculty of Dentistry where he has been involved with, among other things, the calibration of the dental examiners in the Faculty. He has also coordinated workshops on the calibration of dentists for the evaluation of periodontal disease using an index developed by WHO. This index was an integral part of the 1985 Alberta Children's Dental Survey.

An Australian native, Dr Barmes received undergraduate and graduate dentistry degrees at Queensland University in Australia and obtained a master's degree in public health from Michigan University in the United States of America.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to Dr David Barmes.

Antonio Vallisnieri's Lezione Accademia intorno all'origine della fontane... Venezia, Giovanni Gabbriello Ertz, 1715, is the first edition of an important early book in the history of geology which contributed to the correct understanding of springs and rivers. Originally an address given at the University of Padua, Vallisnieri demonstrated that spring water comes from atmospheric precipitation not from seawater. The copperplate showing the structure of mountains is probably the earliest attempt to depict geological structure graphically in the form of horizontal sections.

The Honourable Gordon Towers was installed as Alberta's 13th Lieutenant Governor on March 11, 1991. He served as a Member of Parliament for Red Deer from 1972 until 1984. During his parliamentary service, he was a delegate to the United Nations General Assembly and a delegate of the Canadian Branch, Commonwealth Parliamentary Association, to the 29th Parliamentary Seminar which was held at Westminster. As well, he served as Chair of the Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections, Vice-Chair of the Standing Committee on Agriculture, Official Opposition Critic for the Ministry of Supply and Services, Deputy Official Opposition Critic for the Ministry of Veterans Affairs, Parliamentary Secretary to the Solicitor General, and Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of State for Science and Technology.

In 1989, Mr Towers was named a Paul Harris Fellow by Rotary International and in 1990, his home town of Red Deer declared him Citizen of the Year. He is patron of numerous associations.

The Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of the honorary degree to The Honourable Gordon Towers.

Edward Ferraro's The Art of Dancing, historically illustrated. To which is added a few Hints on Etiquette. New York, Dick & Fitzgerald, 1859, is a rare early American dance book with a large section on dances of American natives and dozens of modern dances including the waltz, polka, quadrille, and popularized national dances. Especially useful are 100 pages with prints of authentic music for the dances. This volume is a treasure trove for social and dance historians.

Office of the Registrar
Administration Building
University of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta T6G 2M7

This Convocation Program is printed on recycled paper containing at least 50% recycled fiber including 10% post-consumer waste paper.

If you can, please share this program with a companion. Then, if you do not take it home, please leave it (in good repair) on the table outside the doors as you exit the auditorium. This will help us ensure that someone else can use it on another day of Convocation, and subsequently conserve paper.
Thank you for your assistance.
